

Background:

Sarah is a Business Architecture Manager in the Technology Practice. Sarah has experience in project management, process design, and client delivery. She has worked with Accenture leaders as well as large Defense and Federal clients on process improvements, resource management, and business development. Sarah can demonstrate innovative ways for clients to improve current business practices and is able to build meaningful client relationships. She holds a Top Secret/SCI clearance with CI poly.

Contact:

✉ Sarah.D.Mason@AFS.com
☎ 281-468-9571

Education:

B.S. Exercise Science – American Military University

Professional Experience:

Business Analyst – DHS - Accenture Federal Services

- Developed Prioritization framework across 6 tasks areas to streamline an average of 40 weekly requests
- Defined stakeholder outreach across 10 sectors to include top major federal agencies such as Energy & EPA
- Delivered VoC Strategy research synthesis and 15 recommendations to improve CX for CISA customers
- Engaged with top level Federal leadership to define client's requirements and current state assessment

Business Process Designer – Welcome.US - Accenture Federal Services

- Provided Process Design Mapping and Research supporting Welcome.US initiative to connect ## annual newcomers with work authorization to employment opportunities
- Conducted research and analysis to identify current processes and challenge areas with a human centered approach
- Delivered Executive level report including findings, solution recommendations and future considerations

Design Lead - Internal – Accenture LLP, CDAO

- Developed/Delivered “Project” Complex Data Solution – enabled Overdue demand data for approx. 40% of the contracts under E2E delivery management
- Established ADO Backlog, CDAO Intake requirement template and process
- Program Manager Role– managed ADO Backlog for IT delivery across multiple PODs, PTO calendar, team engagements

OSINT Operations & Policy Subject Matter Expert - DoD - Accenture Federal Services

- Provided management & execution support on OSINT policy, tools, data, systems, and Digital Ecosystem budget management
- Collected & refined requirements from end users, equity stakeholders, and higher headquarters to increase OSINT enterprise across 6 additional sites

Operations Coordinator - Non-Accenture – United States Air Force

- Provides logistical, administrative, security and info management support for Defense Attaché Offices in Asia/Pacific Region
- Prepares & edits reports for Desk Officers and analysts for national security collection missions

Skills:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| • Project/Program Management | • Process Improvement |
| • Business Process Design & Analysis | • Resource Management |
| • Metrics and Status Reporting | • Design Thinking |